Dear Representative/Senator [insert last name],

My name is [insert], and I am one of your constituents. I am writing in regards to Senate Resolution (S. Res) 97, which was introduced on March 9th, 2021. I was excited to see the introduction of a resolution addressing the conflicts in Ethiopia. However, I was also quite disappointed by the language which limited this resolution to the conflict in Tigray and excluded the ongoing human rights crisis in Oromia. Although human rights violations and abuses of power in Tigray have received the most press, similar abuses have been happening in multiple regions of Ethiopia, particularly in Oromia.

I, therefore, respectfully request that you reconsider the language used in the resolution and expand it to encompass all of Ethiopia, not just in the Tigray region. Human rights abuses including extrajudicial killings, unjust imprisonments, mass rapes, the killing of Hachalu Hundessa, and other egregious crimes must be addressed no matter where in Ethiopia they occur.

This issue is very important to me, and I thank you for your consideration.

Yours sincerely,
